Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Cuero-Mureno is a 42 year old male born in Columbia. He has no legal status to enter, work, or reside in the United States. He is unemployed.
2. Cuero-Mureno has strong family ties to Columbia. He has a previous conviction for illegal re-entry into this country.
3. Cuero-Mureno has used several aliases.
4. BICE has lodged a detainer against Cuero-Mureno.
5. Cuero-Mureno is charged with drug trafficking offenses, including conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and possession with intent to distribute 5 kilograms or more of cocaine, a Schedule II controlled substance. Cuero-Mureno has to prior convictions for possession or sale of cocaine.
6. Cuero-Mureno has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
